12      UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
13      CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

14      JAMIE TORRES,

15      Plaintiff,

16      vs.

17      MACDONALD AND ALBERT LP;
18      PHILIP MACDONALD; and DOES 1-
10,

19      Defendants.

20      Case No.:

21      COMPLAINT FOR:

22      DENIAL OF CIVIL RIGHTS AND
23      ACCESS TO PUBLIC FACILITIES
24      TO PHYSICALLY DISABLED
25      PERSONS IN VIOLATION OF THE
26      AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES
27      ACT OF 1990, (42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq.) AND THE UNRUH CIVIL 28      RIGHTS ACT, (CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE §51, et seq.)

29      DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1        “[T]he continuing existence of unfair and unnecessary discrimination and 2        prejudice denies people with disabilities the opportunity to compete on an
 3        equal basis and to pursue those opportunities for which our free society
 4        is justifiably famous.” 42 U.S.C. §12101(a)(8).

5        “It is the policy of this state to encourage and enable individuals with a 6        disability to participate fully in the social and economic life of the state ...”
 California Government Code §19230(a).

7        Plaintiff JAMIE TORRES (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff”) complains
 8        of MACDONALD AND ALBERT LP, a California limited partnership; PHILIP
 9        MACDONALD an individual dba BOB’S BIG BOY; and DOES 1-10, (each,
 10      individually a “Defendant” and collectively “Defendants”) and alleges as follows:

11                          I.        PARTIES

12        1.        Plaintiff JAMIE TORRES is a California resident and a qualified 13        physically disabled person. She has Rheumatoid Arthritis and uses a wheelchair for 14        mobility. Ms. Torres prides herself on her independence and on empowering other 15        disabled people to be independent

16        2.        Defendants MACDONALD AND ALBERT LP, PHILIP
 17        MACDONALD, and DOES 1-10 are and were the owners, operators, lessors 18        and/or lessees of the subject business, property, and facility at all times relevant in 19        this Complaint.

20        3.        Plaintiff does not know the true names of Defendants, their business 21        capacities, their ownership connection to the property and business, or their 22        relative responsibilities in causing the access violations herein complained of, and 23        alleges a joint venture and common enterprise by all such Defendants. Plaintiff is 24        informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein, including DOES 1 25        through 10, inclusive, is responsible in some capacity for the events herein alleged,
 26        or is a necessary party for obtaining appropriate relief. Plaintiff will seek leave to 27
 28

1 amend when the true names, capacities, connections, and responsibilities of the 2 Defendants and Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are ascertained.

3       4. Defendants own and owned the property located at 4211 W Riverside
4 Dr, Burbank, CA 91505 (“Subject Property”) at all relevant times.

5       5. Defendants operate and operated a restaurant doing business as 6 BOB’S BIG BOY (“restaurant”), located at the Subject Property, at all relevant 7 times.

8       6. Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants have been and are the owners,
9 franchisees, lessees, general partners, limited partners, agents, trustees, employees,
10 subsidiaries, partner companies and/or joint ventures of each of the other
11 Defendants, and performed all acts and omissions stated herein within the course
12 and scope of such relationships causing the damages complained of herein.

13           II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14       7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1343(a)(3) and (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with 16 Disabilities Act of 1990, U.S.C. §12101, et seq.

17       8. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, an attendant and related cause 18 of action, arising out of the same nucleus of operative facts and arising out of the 19 same transactions, is also brought under California’s Unruh Civil Rights Act,
20 which expressly incorporates the Americans with Disabilities Act.

21       9. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. U.S.C. §1331(b)
22 and is founded on the fact that the real property which is the subject of this action
23 is located in this district and that Plaintiff’s causes of action arose in this district.

24           III. FACTS

25       10. Plaintiff uses a wheelchair for mobility.

26       11. Defendants’ business is open to the public, a place of public 27 accommodation, and a business establishment.

1       12. Plaintiff went to the restaurant on May 8, 2024, and purchased food.
2 The receipt she received for her purchase is shown in the photo below.

19       13. Unfortunately, during Plaintiff's visit, Defendants did not offer 20 persons with disabilities equivalent facilities, privileges, advantages, and 21 accommodations offered to other persons.

22       14. Plaintiff encountered numerous barriers that interfered with and 23 denied Plaintiff the ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges,
24 advantages, and accommodations offered by Defendants at the Subject Property.

25       15. These barriers violate one or more standards of the Americans with 26 Disabilities Act ("2010 ADA") and/or the California Building Codes ("2022
27 CBC").

1       16. Parking for patrons visiting the Subject Property is among the 2 facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations offered by Defendants.

3       17. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, “a public
4 accommodation’s first priority should be to enable individuals with disabilities to 5 physically enter its facility. This priority on ‘getting through the door’ recognizes
6 that providing physical access to a facility from public sidewalks, public 7 transportation, or parking is generally preferable to any alternative arrangements in 8 terms of both business efficiency and the dignity of individuals with disabilities.”
9 ADA Title III Technical Assistance Manual §III-4.4500.

10      18. When parking is provided, there must be at least one accessible
11 parking space designated and marked for disabled persons. Where more than one 12 parking facility is provided on a site, the number of accessible spaces provided on 13 the site shall be calculated according to the number of spaces required for each
14 parking facility. Parking spaces that serve a particular building or facility shall be 15 located on the shortest accessible route from parking to an accessible entrance. Van
16 accessible parking must be dispersed equally. 2010 ADA §502 et seq.; 2010 ADA
17 §208.2; 2010 ADA §208.3.1; 2022 CBC 11B-502 et seq.; 2022 CBC 11B-208.2;
18 2022 CBC 11B-208.3.1.

19      19. However, there is not compliant accessible parking for disabled
20 persons at the Subject Property because there are insufficient accessible parking
21 spaces designated for disabled persons, the accessible parking spaces are not
22 located on the shortest accessible route from parking to an accessible entrance,
23 and/or the existing ostensibly designated space or spaces are significantly
24 noncompliant with the applicable ADA and CBC standards.

25      20. There is no van accessible parking located on the shortest accessible
26 route from the parking to the restaurant’s accessible entrance. 2010 ADA §208.3.1;
27 2022 CBC 11B-208.3.1.

1       21. One of the two stalls marked as accessible in front of the restaurant
2 entrance has an access aisle that is insufficiently wide, and the space has an
3 insufficient length. 2010 ADA §502.3.1; 2022 CBC 11B-502.2.

4       22. The other stall marked as accessible in front of the restaurant entrance
5 also has an insufficient length. 2022 CBC 11B-502.2. This stall also has a running
6 slope of 2.4%. ADA §502.4; 2022 CBC 11B-502.4.

7       23. The space marked as van accessible has a running slope of 10.9% and 8 a cross slope of 11.2%. ADA §502.4; 2022 CBC 11B-502.4. The ground surface of 9 this space and its access aisle was severely cracked, broken and uneven.

10 Defendants have failed to maintain the parking lot. 2010 ADA §302; 2022 CBC
11 11B-302; 28 C.F.R. §36.211(a); 2022 CBC 11B-108.

12       24. The site arrival points from both the public right of way and the 13 parking lot do not connect to an accessible route to the accessible entrance of the 14 restaurant. 2010 ADA §206.2.1; 2022 CBC 11B-206.2.1.

15       25. The restaurant's front and side doors require an excessive amount of 16 pressure to open. 2022 CBC 11B-404.2.9.

17       26. There is an unsecured mat in the entrance area of the restaurant. 2010
18 ADA §302.2; 2022 CBC 11B-302.2.

19       27. The route to both outside dining areas is inaccessible. The south
20 outside dining area can only be accessed by stairs. The north outside dining area
21 can only be accessed by going up a curb. 2010 ADA §206.4.1; 2022 CBC 11B-
22 206.4.1.

23       28. Where dining surfaces are provided for the consumption of food and 24 drink, at least 5% of those must be accessible. There must be minimum dimensions
25 for the clearance under an accessible dining table so that the legs and toes of a
26 person in a wheelchair can fit under the table. The north outside dining area has no
27 tables with the required leg and toe space. 2010 ADA §226.1; 2010 ADA §306.2.3;

1 2010 ADA §306.2.5; 2010 ADA §902; 2022 CBC 11B-226.1; 2022 CBC 11B-
2 306.2.3; 2022 CBC 11B-306.2.5; 2022 CBC 11B-902.

3 29. Where restrooms are provided, each restroom must be accessible.
4 2010 ADA §213.2; 2022 CBC 11B-213.2. Among other requirements, a restroom
5 with toilet compartments must include at least one such compartment with 6 sufficient width and maneuvering space for a wheelchair user to transfer to and 7 from the toilet. 2010 ADA §604.3.1, §604.8; 2022 CBC 11B-604.3.1, 11B-604.8.

8 30. However, the women's restroom does not contain any toilet
9 compartments that are wide enough to comply with the width and maneuvering
10 requirements of the ADA and CBC. There is no toilet stall with sufficient clear 11 floor space, width, and maneuvering space for a wheelchair user to transfer to and 12 from the toilet. 2010 ADA §603.2.1, 2010 ADA §604.3.1, 2010 ADA §604.8.1.1, 13 2010 ADA §604.8.1.2; CBC 11B-603.2.1, CBC 11B-604.3.1, CBC 11B-604.8.1.1,
14 CBC 11B-604.8.1.2.

15 31. The changing table is positioned so that when it is deployed it
16 prevents the stall door from opening. 2010 ADA §307.2; CBC 11B-307.2.

17 32. There is an unsecured, wet, and slippery mat under the sink. 2010
18 ADA §302; CBC 11B-302.

19 33. The left grab bar is broken. The rear grab bar is not sufficient length.
20 2010 ADA §604.5.1; 2010 ADA §604.5.1; CBC 11B-604.5.2; 28 C.F.R.
21 §36.211(a); 2022 CBC 11B-108.

22 34. The photos below show one or more of these violations.

1       35. The barriers existed during Plaintiff's visit to the Subject Property.
2 Plaintiff personally encountered these barriers.

3       36. These inaccessible conditions and barriers denied Plaintiff full and 4 equal access and caused her difficulty, discomfort, and embarrassment.

5       37. These barriers denied Plaintiff full and equal access due to her
6 disability because, inter alia, they caused Plaintiff anxiety, difficulty, discomfort,
7 and embarrassment which patrons who do not use a wheelchair for mobility do not
8 suffer when they access the Subject Property.

9       38. Plaintiff intends to return to the Subject Property in the near future.
10 Plaintiff is currently deterred from returning because of the knowledge of the 11 barriers to equal access that relate to Plaintiff's disabilities which continue to exist
12 at Defendants' public accommodation facilities.

13       39. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants knew that the barriers prevented
14 equal access. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants had actual or constructive 15 knowledge that the architectural barriers prevented equal access, and that the 16 noncompliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Title 24 of the 17 California Building Code regarding accessible features was intentional.

18       40. Defendants have obstructed or failed to maintain, in working and 19 useable conditions, those features necessary to provide ready access to persons
20 with disabilities. "A public accommodation shall maintain in operable working 21 condition those features of facilities and equipment that are required to be readily
22 accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities." 28 C.F.R. §36.211(a); 2022
23 CBC 11B-108.

24       41. The State of California Department of General Servicers, Division of 25 the State Architect (DSA) provides commentary to 2022 CBC 11B-108 as follows:

26              Features for accessibility must be permanently functional, unobstructed
27 and may not be removed. It is not sufficient to provide features such as 28 accessible routes, parking, elevators, ramps or signage if those features

1       are not maintained in a manner that enables individuals with disabilities
2       to use them.

3 DSA, 2019 California Access Compliance Advisory Reference Manual, p.84.

4       42. Defendants have the financial resources to remove these barriers
5 without much expense or difficulty in order to make their property more accessible
6 to their mobility impaired customers. The United States Department of Justice has 7 identified that these types of barriers are readily achievable to remove.

8       43. To date, Defendants refuse to remove these barriers, in violation of 9 the law, willfully depriving disabled persons including Plaintiff of important civil 10 rights.

11       44. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants' 12 failure to remove these barriers was intentional because the barriers are logical and 13 obvious. During all relevant times Defendants had authority, control, and dominion
14 over these conditions and therefore the absence of accessible facilities was not a 15 mishap, but rather an intentional act.

16       45. The barriers to access are listed above without prejudice to Plaintiff
17 citing additional barriers to equal access by an amended complaint after inspection
18 by Plaintiff's Certified Access Specialist (CASP). Oliver v. Ralphs Grocery Co., 19 654 F.3d 903 (9th Cir. 2011); Doran v. 7-Eleven, Inc., 524 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir.
20 2008); Chapman v. Pier One Imports (USA), Inc., 631 F.3d 939 (9th Cir. 2011).
21 All of these barriers to access render the premises inaccessible to physically
22 disabled persons who are mobility impaired, such as Plaintiff, are barriers Plaintiff
23 may encounter when she returns to the premises. All public accommodations must 24 be brought into compliance with all applicable federal and state accessibility
25 requirements.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990

(42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

46. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth again herein, each and every allegation contained in all prior paragraphs of this complaint.

47. More than thirty years ago, the 101st United States Congress found that although “physical or mental disabilities in no way diminish a person’s right to fully participate in all aspects of society, yet many people with physical or mental disabilities have been precluded from doing so because of discrimination...in such critical areas as employment, housing, public accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public services.” 42 U.S.C. §12101(a).

48. In 1990 Congress also found that “the Nation’s proper goals regarding individuals with disabilities are to assure equality of opportunity, full participation, independent living, and economic self-sufficiency for such individuals,” but that “the continuing existence of unfair and unnecessary discrimination and prejudice denies people with disabilities the opportunity to compete on an equal basis and to pursue those opportunities for which our free society is justifiably famous.” 42 U.S.C. §12101(a).

49. In passing the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, which was signed into law by President George H. W. Bush on July 26, 1990 (hereinafter the “ADA”), Congress stated as its purpose:

“It is the purpose of this Act

(1) to provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities;

(2) to provide clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities;

(3) to ensure that the Federal Government plays a central role in enforcing the standards established in this Act on behalf of individuals with disabilities; and

(4) to invoke the sweep of congressional authority, including the power to enforce the fourteenth amendment and to regulate commerce, in order to address the major areas of discrimination faced day to-day by people with disabilities.”

42 USC §12101(b).

50. As part of the ADA, Congress passed “Title III – Public Accommodations and Services Operated by Private Entities” (42 U.S.C. §12181 et seq.). Title III of the ADA prohibits discrimination against any person “on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation by any person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public accommodation.” 42 U.S.C. §12182(a).

51. The specific prohibitions against discrimination include, inter alia, the following:

- 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(1)(A)(ii): “Participation in Unequal Benefit. - It shall be discriminatory to afford an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or disabilities of such individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements, with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is not equal to that afforded to other individuals.”
  - 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(ii): “a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures when such modifications are necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities...;”

- 1     • 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(iii): “a failure to take such steps as may be
2         necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded,
3         denied service, segregated, or otherwise treated differently than other
4         individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services...;”
- 5     • 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(iv): “a failure to remove architectural 6         barriers, and communication barriers that are structural in nature, in 7         existing facilities... where such removal is readily achievable;”
- 8     • 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(v): “where an entity can demonstrate that 9         the removal of a barrier under clause (iv) is not readily achievable, a 10         failure to make such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, 11         or accommodations available through alternative methods if such 12         methods are readily achievable.”

12           52. Plaintiff is a qualified individual with a disability as defined in the 13         Rehabilitation Act and in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

14           53. The acts and omissions of Defendants set forth herein were in 15         violation of Plaintiff’s rights under the ADA and the regulations promulgated 16         thereunder, 28 C.F.R. Part 36 et seq.

17           54. The removal of each of the physical and policy barriers complained of 18         by Plaintiff as hereinabove alleged, were at all times herein mentioned “readily 19         achievable” under the standards of §12181 and §12182 of the ADA. Removal of 20         each and every one of the architectural and/or policy barriers complained of herein
21         was already required under California law. Further, on information and belief, 22         alterations, structural repairs or additions since January 26, 1993, have also 23         independently triggered requirements for removal of barriers to access for disabled
24         persons per §12183 of the ADA. In the event that removal of any barrier is found
25         to be “not readily achievable,” Defendants still violated the ADA, per 26         §12182(b)(2)(A)(v) by failing to provide all goods, services, privileges, advantages
27         and accommodations through alternative methods that were “readily achievable.”

55. On information and belief, as of the date of Plaintiff's encounter at the premises and as of the filing of this Complaint, Defendants' actions, policies, and physical premises have denied and continue to deny full and equal access to Plaintiff and to other mobility disabled persons in other respects, which violate Plaintiff's right to full and equal access and which discriminate against Plaintiff on the basis of her disabilities, thus wrongfully denying to Plaintiff the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182 and §12183 of the ADA.

56. Defendants' actions continue to deny Plaintiff's rights to full and equal access and discriminated and continue to discriminate against her on the basis of her disabilities, thus wrongfully denying to Plaintiff the full and equal enjoyment of Defendants' goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations, in violation of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §12182.

57. Further, each and every violation of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 also constitutes a separate and distinct violation of California Civil Code §51(f), §52, §54(c) and §54.1(d), thus independently justifying an award of damages and injunctive relief pursuant to California law, including but not limited to Civil Code §54.3 and §55.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act

(California Civil Code §51, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

58. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth again herein, each and every allegation contained in all prior paragraphs of this complaint.

59. California Civil Code §51 provides that physically disabled persons are free and equal citizens of the state, regardless of their medical condition or disability:

1 All persons within the jurisdiction of this state are free and equal, and
2 no matter what their sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin,
3 disability, or medical condition are entitled to full and equal
4 accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever.

5 California Civil Code §51(b) (emphasis added).

6 60. California Civil Code §51.5 also states, in part: “No business,
7 establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against...any person in 8 this state on account” of their disability.

9 61. California Civil Code §51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference)
10 an individual’s rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

11 62. California Civil Code §52 provides that the discrimination by 12 Defendants against Plaintiff on the basis of her disability constitutes a violation of 13 the general antidiscrimination provisions of §51 and §52.

14 63. Each of Defendants’ discriminatory acts or omissions constitutes a 15 separate and distinct violation of California Civil Code §52, which provides that:

16 Whoever denies, aids or incites a denial, or makes any discrimination 17 or distinction contrary to section 51, 51.5, or 51.6 is liable for each and 18 every offense for the actual damages, and any amount that may be 19 determined by a jury, or a court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum 20 of three times the amount of actual damage but in no case less than four 21 thousand dollars ($4,000), and any attorney’s fees that may be 22 determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person denied the rights provided in Section 51, 51.5, or 51.6.

23 64. Any violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990
24 constitutes a violation of California Civil Code §51(f), thus independently
25 justifying an award of damages and injunctive relief pursuant to California law, 26 including Civil Code §52. Per Civil Code §51(f), “A violation of the right of any 27 individual under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-
336) shall also constitute a violation of this section.”

65. The actions and omissions of Defendants as herein alleged constitute a denial of access to and use of the described public facilities by physically disabled persons within the meaning of California Civil Code §51 and §52.

66. The discriminatory denial of equal access to and use of the described public facilities caused Plaintiff difficulty, discomfort, and embarrassment.

67. As a proximate result of Defendants' action and omissions, Defendants have discriminated against Plaintiff in violation of Civil Code §51 and §52, and are responsible for statutory, compensatory and actual damages to Plaintiff, according to proof.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law to redress the wrongs suffered as set forth in this Complaint. Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury as a result of the unlawful acts, omissions, policies, and practices of the Defendants as alleged herein, unless Plaintiff is granted the relief she requests. Plaintiff and Defendants have an actual controversy and opposing legal positions as to Defendants' violations of the laws of the United States and the State of California.

The need for relief is critical because the civil rights at issue are paramount under the laws of the United States of America and the State of California.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

1. Issue a preliminary and permanent injunction directing Defendants as current owners, operators, lessors, and/or lessees of the Subject Property and premises to modify the above described property, premises, policies and related facilities to provide full and equal access to all persons, including persons with physical disabilities; and issue a preliminary and permanent injunction pursuant to ADA §12188(a) and state law directing Defendants to provide facilities and services usable

1 by Plaintiff and similarly situated persons with disabilities, and which 2 provide full and equal access, as required by law, and to maintain such
3 accessible facilities once they are provided; to cease any discriminatory
4 policies; and to train Defendants' employees and agents how to 5 recognize disabled persons and accommodate their rights and needs;

6 2. Retain jurisdiction over the Defendants until such time as
7 the Court is satisfied that Defendants' unlawful policies, practices, acts
8 and omissions, and maintenance of physically inaccessible public
9 facilities and policies as complained of herein no longer occur, and 10 cannot recur;

11 3. Award to Plaintiff all appropriate damages, including but 12 not limited to actual and statutory damages according to proof;

13 4. Award to Plaintiff all reasonable attorney fees, litigation
14 expenses, and costs of this proceeding pursuant to 42 U.S.C §12205 and 15 California Civil Code §52; and

16 5. Grant such other and further relief as this Court may deem 17 just and proper.
